

Colleagues,

Thanks again to all those that stopped by to see us at WTM this year.

WTM attendance grows year on year with close to 100,000 people through the gates this year and an estimated £2 Billion worth of business written.

Can your business afford not to be there next year?

Until next time!

Thermeon exhibited again at this year's WTM Travel Trade event in London's ExCel.

We were delighted to see customers from right across the world and meet new people involved in Car Rental businesses from over 50 countries. This year we were very pleased to have a number of people from the UK Support team spend time on our stand and very satisfying for both customers and our team to put more faces to names. Equally, the feedback from both was very positive and we really appreciate the comments made repeatedly about the quality and professionalism of the support received by customers around the world.

There was a lot of interest in items like qBuster and cars+iR as more and more rental companies look for ways of connecting with their customers in new and more efficient ways.

WTM is a showcase for the Travel Industry and it was great to meet more people involved in supplying business to Car Rental companies and we aim to remain at the forefront of connectivity to so many partners and suppliers for our customers.

And because it's never too early to start planning these things: WTM, London, next year is scheduled for 2-5th November 2015....(right after the Rugby World Cup!).

See you there next year?
Russell
